The Anti-Brainwashing League is an organization with a simple objective: establish widespread public awareness of mind influencing technologies as a precursor to lobbying for the introduction of anti-brainwashing curriculum into high school education.

Benefits of membership revolve around the ability to earn voting rights. All other resources are freely offered to the public regardless of membership status.

If you wish to provide some details on why you are interested in the ABL, for example personal experiences or experiences of people you know, feel free to type out a very brief description the most important points here.

Do you wish to volunteer with the ABL?

If you wish to volunteer, please tell us about scheduling issues of commitments, such as 2-4 hours a week, 15 hours a week, only on Mondays, never on Sundays, etc.

If you wish to volunteer in the sense that you have your own project and wish to affiliate it with the ABL, please describe this project in general, its objectives, differences between your own objectives and those objectives which are more obviously of interest to the ABL, human resources needed to complete the project, and which (if any) support from ABL in the process of the project might be requested.

Specific skills that you would like ABL administrators to be aware of in order to match your skills and interests with needs at ABL.
